OUR WORLD AT BRIDGEWATER

Our world at Bridgewater College means many things to many people. All of us remember those dreadful 8:00 classes and our many considerate professors whose world largely included us, yet whose personalities varied as much as our own. Many of us recall supporting our teams in victory and defeat, while others look back on our campus activities which complemented our academie and social life making the student an integral part of the college world.

As we begin our pictorial account of the year, may we recall our world at Bridgewater as being one of fond memories which we will ever hold dear to us in years to come.

DEDICATION

The 1967 Ripples is dedicated to Dr. John W. Boitnott, Dean of the College and his wife, Mrs. Nell Kersh Boitnott, Assistant Professor of Education, for their many years of loyal and sincere service to Bridgewater College. Both have served the cause of higher Christian education in years of depression and prosperity, in peace and in war, and have greatly contributed to the continued growth of our college. Dr. and Mrs. Boitnott are highly respected for their devotion and fairness in personal life, in the church, in the college, and in the community. This sequence could be wrong but the principles are right.

OUR WORLD IS STUDY IN THE LAB

AND IN THE LIBRARY

Many students find campus work in the cafeteria. These boys are kept busy with a continuous line of students with dirty dishes.

Students rush into the cafeteria during the busy and crowded noon hour.

President Geisert Completes Third Year

Wayne F. Geisert
President of Bridgewater College
B.A., Ph.D.

In his third year at Bridgewater, Dr. Geisert furthered his interest in Asian studies and computer programs while continuing his work on the Board of Trustees, with the student body, and as administrator.

Dean Boitnott announced his retirement after twenty years as Dean of the College and many years of service in other educational fields.

Dr. and Mrs. Geisert discuss college life with other parents at Parents' Day program.

Dean Boitnott Announces Retirement

J. Alaric Bowman, B.A., M.S.
Dean of Students

Betty H. Kline, B.A., M.A.
Assistant Dean of Students

With the addition of Dean Bowman to the faculty, the deans began new programs and policies. Aiding the Senate on important matters and acting as liaison between students and administration, both Mr. Bowman and Mrs. Kline contributed to campus life.

Mrs. Kline talks with a parent at Parents' Day.

Dean Bowman works on scheduling in his office.

History Department

This past summer members of the History Department were enrolled in courses of advanced study. Mr. James Mumper received his doctorate in history in August.

New additions to the department included Mrs. Anne Geller and Mr. A. B. Pearson, who is filling Dr. Roger Sappington's position during his leave of absence to study the early pietistic sects of Western North Carolina.

James A. Mumper
B.A., M.Ed., M.A., Ph.D.

Alden B. Pearson, Jr.
B.A., B.D., M.A.

Dr. Mumper tells students that there are varying points of views concerning this theory.

Mrs. Geller assures the class that history is the best teacher.

Completes Advanced Studies

Mr. Bly awakens interest in Western Civilization.

According to Mr. Glick, the bell does not ring for another ten minutes.

Mr. Pearson makes more clear a point after class.

W. Robert McFadden
B.A., B.D., Ph.D.

European Traveller Returns to B.C.

Returning to the Religion and Philosophy Department are two former B.C. faculty members, Dr. William Willoughby and Mr. David Metzler. A new course, Introduction to Biblical Studies, has been added to introduce students to the history of Israel, the life of Christ, and the beginnings of the Christian Church.

William G. Willoughby
B.A., B.D., Ph.D.

Dr. McFadden holds the attention of his class by interjecting an interesting fact.

David G. Metzler
B.A., B.D., S.T.M.

Mr. Metzler listens to a student's point of view on Biblical interpretation.

A statement by Dr. Willoughby raises a question.

Religions of the World can be interesting even if it is Saturday morning.

Mr. Metzler informs the class that the Bible can be interpreted to mean many things.

Students use the chalkboard to show their understanding of Plato's philosophy.

Purchase of New Equipment Expands Study of Physics

The Physics Department purchased a helium-neon gas laser, Beta ray spectrometer, mass spectrometer, and an air track for demonstrating momentum and energy conservation to explain and illustrate the principles of physics.

Dean R. Neher
B.A., M.A., Ph.D.

Dr. Ulrich uses the overhead projector to illustrate vector mechanics.

Students have a variety of equipment to help understand the principles of physics.

Dale V. Ulrich
B.A., M.S., Ph.D.

General Physical Science Introduces Basics

Taking good notes is important for good grades.

The one course in the science department which includes all phases of science is General Physical Science. This year, the course is being taught by Mr. Larry White, who is a 1965 Bridgewater graduate.

Mr. White finds that a diagram is worth a thousand words.

Students ask for individual help in Mr. White's Physical Science lab.

Larry H. White
B.A.

Robert K. Burns
B.A., Ph.D.

Harry G. M. Jopson
B.S., M.A., Ph.D.

Elizabeth L. Kyger
B.A., M.A.

Biologists Study Life Processes

Dr. Burns uses diagrams to make his lectures in Embryology more meaningful.

Biology labs make possible individual attention on the part of Dr. Jopson.

Frances E. Silliman
B.S., M.S., M.A., Ph.D.

Dr. Silliman gives individual help to a student.

Chemistry Encourages Individual Research

Returning from a year's leave of absence is Dr. John Martin who received a Fulbright lectureship in chemistry at the University of Cairo in Egypt.

The Chemistry Department also received a grant from the National Institute of Health to aid in the research of cancer.

Dr. Martin and Dr. Heisey consider new laboratory equipment.

Lowell V. Heisey
B.A., M.S., Ph.D.

Chemistry students have a wide variety of apparatus for their use in completing chemistry experiments.

John W. Martin, Jr.
B.A., B.S., Ph.D.

The Study of Man— Sociology and Psychology

This year the Sociology Department has added a new course, Social Stratification, which has helped to further the study of cultures.

The Psychology Department has also made changes in their curriculum. They have added, in conjunction with Abnormal Psychology, Psychology 59 — Laboratory in Behavior Psychology.

William E. Barnett
B.A., M.A.

Individual conferences with Dr. Bittinger result in a better understanding of student goals.

Emmert F. Bittinger
B.A., M.A., B.D., Ph.D.

Students in a Principle of Sociology class listen as Mr. Barnett outlines some of the important issues facing society today.

The study of rat responses help to understand human behavior.

That question requires a little thought.

George W. Kent
B.A., M.A.

Betty H. Kline
B.A., M.A.

Business and Economic Majors Prepare for Success

V. Stephen Bradshaw
B.S., LL.B.

George L. Fitchett
B.S., M.B.A.

Robert L. Hueston
B.A., M.B.A., C.P.A.

Bernard S. Logan
B.A., MS., Ph.D.

Students listen with interest to Mr. Fitchett's lecture on problems in Business Management.

Mr. Hueston suggests an example in the book as a guide for an accounting problem.

Mr. Fitchett finds a calculator to be a good check.

Dr. Logan uses a gesture to emphasize a point.

Dr. Logan encourages the asking of questions in his economics classes.

Math Department Enters the Computer Age

Olive S. Bowman
B.S., M.S.

Rudolph A. Glick
B.A., M.A.

Robert J. Weiss
B.A., M.A., Ph.D.

John E. White
B.A., M.S.

Mr. Glick asks a student to give the second step in solving a fractional equation.

Dr. Weiss explains a proof in Real Variable Theory class.

Mr. White uses a model to explain a point.

Barbara Purkey gets practical experience in teaching as a student teacher at Turner Ashby High School.

Serving as Placement Officer for the college, Dr. Wampler always has paper work to do.

Education Department Prepares Teachers for Tomorrow

Nell Kersh Boitnott
B.A., M.A.

Fred F. Wampler
B.A., M.A., Ed.D.

Mrs. Boitnott lectures to future elementary teachers on the best methods of teaching reading to children.

Enlarged Faculty Broadens

Ann Mabe finds practice to be a daily routine.

Humor can be found in Miss Cool's Music Theory class.

A peek through the listening room door.

Dave Breneman practices on the organ in Cole Hall.

Daily practice in singing and piano is included in the schedule of music major Ann Foster.

Scope of Music Department

A. George Bortz
B.Mus., M.Mus.Ed.

A. Olivia Cool
B.A., M.Mus.

W. Clifton Pritchett
B.S., M.A.

In addition to two new faculty members, Bridgewater's Music Department has added several new instruments to aid the student in his appreciation of music. A Pep Band has also been created to help increase school spirit at B.C.

Mr. Bortz works with a student in a practice session.

Ruth W. Stauffer
B.M.

Philip E. Trout
B.S., M.Mus.

Paul M. Kline
B.A., M.F.A.
Art

Self Expression Through Art and Drama

In the Art Department students learn how to develop and express their creative skills through sculpture and painting. Recognition is given to some of the finer works in a special library exhibit during the year.

Through the Drama Department students are given the opportunity to learn more about the theater and participate in campus productions.

Charles F. Fuller, Jr.
B.F.A.
Drama, Speech,
and English

Jeanne Wright puts the finishing touches on her clay model.

A sculpture student makes deft use of sculpture tools.

S. Ruth Howe
B.A., M.S.

Anna Mae Myers
B.S., M.S.

Future economists discover the joy of cooking.

Virginia H. Myers
B.S., M.S.

Design for Living Through Home Economics

Student teacher, Gladys Gible, enjoys a meal prepared by her students.

New recipes are tested.

SENIORS—THE RUGGED CLASS

Entering as freshmen in 1963, the Class of 1967 diminished in number through four vigorous years of labs, student teaching, final exams, and Powder Puff football games. What is left is a thoroughly screened out bunch of great individuals.

The Eagles gave the fans an exciting 1966 season despite a 3-4 record.

The Eagles opened at Gallaudet College with a 13-7 victory, despite a frigid downpour that hampered the Eagle attack both on the ground and in the air. Bridgewater's touchdowns were scored by Tom Glasgow and Ed Hutto.

In the home opener against Hampden-Sydney the Eagles got the short end of a 26-6 score. Sydney's explosive offense scored only in the first half, two touchdowns coming on long passes. The Eagle defense held the Tigers in check in the second half.

Randolph-Macon fought for its football life on Riverside Field, but came out on top 17-7. The Eagles scored first on a one-yard plunge by Hutto. Macon scored and the score stood 7-7 at the half. A field goal and a late touchdown put the game on ice for Macon.

The Eagles slammed Frostburg 19-6 for a sweet Homecoming victory. Eagle touchdowns were by E. B. Daniels, Doug Roberts, and Hutto.

Back on the road again, the Eagles dropped the game to Washington & Lee 14-6. The Generals scored on a long bomber, and again after a disastrous fumble. Bridgewater scored on a pass from Hutto to split end Mike McDonald, who caught 11 passes in the game.

A muffed conversion attempt let Western Maryland ease by 7-6. Glasgow scored BC's lone touchdown to cap 104 yards ground out in that game.

To end the season the Eagles gave the home crowd the present of a 14-3 win over Shepherd. B. C. beat out a Shepherd field goal with a 60-yard scoring strike from Joe Powell to Terry Westhafer. Jim Walsh scored the last t. d. of the season with a plunge, after his own interception put the ball on the one-yard line.

A fitting end to the season came when B. C. Captain Guy Stull was named Most Valuable Player in the Mason-Dixon Conference.

COACH MYERS spurred the team on to the best season in years.

The Eagles had one of the most dramatic and eventful seasons ever in 1966-67 as they swept through the Mason-Dixon Tournament to the finals. Only the Mount St. Marys Mounties kept Bridgewater from the title.

The season opened December 1 with the Eagles topping W & L 83-71. Breaking loose from a 37-37 half-time tie, five of the B.C. cagers got into double figures.

The following night the Eagles came home to dump Gallaudet 84-47.

A runaway victory over Davis & Elkins, 102-65, made the count three in a row as thirteen Bridgewater players got to score.

Throughout the season, B.C.'s work at the charity strip was a decisive factor. The magic failed as we met our first defeat at the hands of Western Maryland, 96-89. Jim Upperman's 32 points and Jim Ellis' 23 just weren't enough to turn the tide.

Another bad night saw the University of Baltimore top the Eagles 71-63.

Two last minute freethrows by freshman guard Rick Wampler put the Eagles back in the win column as they slipped past the Shepherd Rams 86-85, Ed Cook and Jim Upperman both scoring 24.

After trailing by as much as 14 points in early stages, the Eagles snapped back in the final five minutes to trump Davis & Elkins 76-73, with Cook running up a 34-point tally.

During the Christmas vacation, the Eagles made their bid for the Rotary Holiday Tournament. Bridgewater took University of North Carolina at Charlotte 79-70 in the first round, but Millersville State took the title with a 118-100 win—the widest margin of defeat during the season.

Eagle captain Jim Hawley has always been noted for his floor work, but an even better than usual effort helped the Eagles start out 1967 with a 91-88 win over Hampden-Sydney.

Washington & Lee got revenge for their opening game loss with a narrow 66-64 win, and Randy Macon's Yellow Jackets poured salt in our wounds with a 76-64 the following night.

Probably the tightest game of the season cropped up on the tenth, as the Eagles let a 14-point halftime lead evaporate to Lynchburg. The Yellow Jackets' boy wonder, Wayne Proffitt, scored 48 points to send the game into overtime, but a last minute shot by Upperman gave the 91-89 edge to the Eagles.

At that point the Eagles ran wild and pulled off five wins in a row. They avenged an earlier defeat by University of Baltimore with a resounding 99-63 victory, bounced Roanoke 87-81, and downed R.P.I. 89-81. They topped Emory and Henry 86-85. Even the inactivity of Ed Cook, hobbled with a sprained ankle, couldn't let Gallaudet stop an 80-52 humiliation.

For the rest of the season the Eagles alternated in the win and loss columns. Hampden-Sydney dumped the Birds 85-77, we put down Randy Macon 75-74, Roanoke slipped past us 87-85, we topped—R.P.I. 97-92, and Lynchburg ended up the season by taking us 95-90.

A 9-6 record in Mason-Dixon competition got us a berth in the tournament, to the colossal amusement of almost everyone. The laughs soon died as the Eagles knocked off powerful Loyola 70-66. B.C. proved it was no fluke as another powerhouse, Old Dominion, fell to the Eagles 74-68. The stage was set for the final battle.

Some 500 students made the pilgrimage to Catholic University's dilapidated gym Saturday night. But a tall, powerful troop of Mounties slapped down the Eagles 84-68, amidst considerable vituperation from both teams, the fans, and even one noisy referee. It was still the best year ever, and one that won't soon be forgotten. For Jim Ellis, elected to the State Small College first team, and Jim Upperman, chosen for the Mason-Dixon Conference second team, it was a special year indeed.

Little Eagles Triumph

The Junior Varsity Basketball Team completed a successful season with a record of eight wins and four losses, losing twice only to powerful Staunton Military Academy. The "little" Eagles swept double victories from Massanutten Military Academy, Eastern Mennonite and Madison Colleges, and split victories with Washington and Lee University and Augusta Military Academy.

Coach Reedy felt the strong finish indicated considerable improvement, and he was particularly pleased with the balanced scoring of the regulars—Bill Crunk, Charlie Kipps, Bob Boyle, Dennis Woolfrey, and Bob Houff.

For years Bridgewater's legmen—both in track and in cross country competition—have been garnering wins. This year was no exception, as the Harriers finished the season with a dual meet record of four wins and only two losses. Under the guidance of Dr. Jopson and Dr. Burns, the team finished second in the Little Eight, fifth in the State Championships, and tied for fifth in the Mason-Dixon Championships.

Cindermen Achieve Total Victory

An undefeated season is no longer a novelty for the track team. This year's pride was the relay group. The 440 team of Richard Neff, Mike Guinn, Warren Weimer and Terry Westhafer held the Conference record for 24 hours before surrendering it to the American University mercenaries. The mile relay, with Mike Trout running in Weimer's place, set a new college record for B.C. at 3:23.8.

Jerry Fawley set new B.C. marks in both high and intermediate hurdles, with Steve May and Dean Carter setting the pace in the 880. Ron Coleman excelled in the two-mile run. Kim Wright was top high jumper, with Harry Chandler filling that spot in pole vault. Other stars were Ron Tilgner in the broad jump, Trout and John Erb in the triple jump, Roland Caricofe in the shot and Jim Croy in discus.

Tennis

KIRK STOKES completed his fourth and final year on the men's tennis team.

TOM AND RICK SCORDAS made up the top doubles team for the 1966 season.

VICTORY AGAINST LYNCHBURG made the 1966 season the best in several years, although no other matches were won. A hard-fought defeat at the hands of Hampden-Sydney, 5-4, was never revenged as the rains washed out the return bout. Another narrow defeat met the netmen as they took on Roanoke. Washington and Lee, Randolph-Macon, and Westminster administered punishing losses, but we proved to have the first team in years that deserved respect as a powerful contender. Coach Wampler deserves much of the credit for this.

Is There a Golf Team?

The existence of a golf team at Bridgewater is one of the most closely guarded secrets on campus. There are only a few indications, if you know where to look. The Dean's office issues excuses for the players, and sometimes they can be seen trudging across campus with their clubs. And once each year they parade before the Ripples camera, playing Arnie Palmer on the athletic field.

But the team does exist. Just ask them. Ask Coach Gunsten. Or team captain Vince Gilmer. Or Bob Leiter and Bruce Skelley, who alternated in the number one position. Just don't ask them about the scores of last year's matches. The season was disastrously one-sided.

Baseball 1966—a Very Good Year

The monsoon season ended any Eagle hopes of taking the Mason-Dixon Conference title, as we placed second to American University in the Southern Division. Bridgewater never met A.U. on the diamond—one of six games rained out. Of the thirteen games played, Bridgewater tied in one and won nine, for a highly respectable 69% win record. The team average at the plate ran .270, with three men batting .400 or better and two more above .300. With most of the team returning a strong 1967 season was anticipated.

SENIOR BOB NIDA hurled his way to a 4-2 record, allowing an earned run average of only 1.3.

BIG GUY STULL made his presence known with seven runs batted in, a .355 average, and errorless work in the field.

YAGER MARKS, in his fourth and final year, led the team's offense with a .442 batting average and seven stolen bases.

Once a year we have the intramural track and field day—the chance to reap glory for dear old Heritage, or Wright, or what have you.

Intramurals

In an inspired moment some obscure Roman coined the phrase mens sana in corpore sano, and students have been stuck with it ever since. At B.C. we build our sound bodies through the intramural program and such vigorous sports as bridge, checkers, and coin-tossing (the most common method of accumulating intramural hours).

A few of the heartier souls occasionally sneak in a round of handball or tennis, or join their neighbors to defend dorm honor at baseball or basketball. And it's at the bowling alleys that the imagination runs wild and teams develop a spirit to match their names.

Eaglettes Win Again

Have Bridgewater's girls ever had a losing season? Well, who can remember when? The 1966 season was another terrific one — only one loss. The Jr. Varsity team even did better than the Varsity record of 5-1-2 as they finished with a record of 6-1. Once again the superb coaching of Miss Mapp and the strenuous afternoon practices paid off in a victorious season.

As B. C. defense is pulled out, Alice Phillips finds herself all alone to defend the goal.

Eaglettes Post Admirable Records

The '66-'67 season was a successful one for Bridgewater's girls basketball teams. Both teams posted 14 victories. The Varsity only lost two games: one to William and Mary and one to Lynchburg. The highlight of the season came as the Eaglettes trounced Salisbury States with a record-breaking 99 to 15. The only Jr. Varsity loss came as a great disappointment in the last game against Madison College after an otherwise perfect season.

Pat Nunnally starts the game with a jump ball.

Miss Mapp expresses pleasure in the team for their performance against Salisbury.

Alice Phillips, aided by a double screen, sinks another one of her fantastic long shots.

Barbara Purkey scrambles after the ball while Nancy Boller closes in on her opponent.

Pat Nunnally shoots from the foul line.

'66 Girls' Tennis Teams Successful

Under the direction of their coach, Miss Mapp, the 1966 Tennis Team was larger than ever. Increasing interest brought out much new talent and skill. Several new opponents were added to the list of schools challenged providing several new defeats but also providing a higher level of competition. All in all it was a good season with a Varsity record of 7-3 and a J. V. record of 4-2.

Senior Athletes

Jim Ellis

College athletics is the long, hard grind that never ends until the season is over—if then. The rewards are never truly adequate for the time that must be taken from studies and social life. At best the athletes get scattered applause; when the game goes badly even that fails.

At Bridgewater College there are no athletic scholarships. There are no cushy jobs "sweeping out the gym." The football stars are our friends, not campus heroes.

There's really only one thing that can keep an athlete going through all four years of school: guts. Guts, and an indomitable will to compete. The five seniors on this page along with many others have stuck to it right on down to the wire, and we'd like to give them our special thanks.

Meeting every Tuesday night at 7 P.M., the Student Senate represented the student body. Planning for the coming year began early at the Pre-school Planning Conference. Representatives from all classes, clubs, and dorms comprised the members of the student body. Problems dealing with student opinion, student needs, and extra-curricular activities were discussed and acted upon. Special committees appointed by the Senate dealt with specific campus activities.

Executive Committee

Sam Zigler, Paul Buxton, Bill Castle, Frank Harris, Mike Ely, Charles Kipps.

Student Senate Represents Student Body in All Areas

Dave Penrod makes a suggestion from the floor.

Honor Council

Committees Function Behind The Scenes

Concert Committee

Left to right: Jim Wilkerson, Jane Prescott, Susan Cobb, Terry Morton.

Standing committees of the Student Senate work in various areas of campus life. The Social Committee plans and sponsors the social events on campus, such as movies and dances. The Concert Committee contacts the performing groups for concerts at B.C., and makes all necessary arrangements on campus. The Honor Council maintains the honor system and continues to enforce high standards and ideals in all areas of campus life.

Bridgewater Student Senate sponsored the first college bowl in the area in which Madison College, Eastern Mennonite College, and Bridgewater College participated. Representing Bridgewater College was Emerson Poling, Sandy Chase, and Dave Penrod.

Social Committee Initiates Activities

Social Committee

First row: Sandy Chase, Publicity Chairman; Doug Wood, Co-chairman, Kathy Kevill, Co-chairman, Mrs. Kline. Second row: Paul Buxton, Kathy Martin, Jim Brashears, Linda Knight, Secretary; Dr. McFadden.

Religious Groups Are an Active Part of B.C.

BSF

Fellowship and Spiritual Growth Emphasized

Brethren Student Fellowship officers: Elaine Ritchie, Ed Arnett, Lois Wine, and Ken Shaffer.

Activities ranging from square dancing to deputation trips were sponsored by the religious groups on campus. Meeting every Sunday night, these groups planned activities for the student to participate in fellowship, and at the same time receive spiritual growth. Wesley Fellowship was composed of Methodist students, while BSF was composed of Church of the Brethren students. For the early riser, Sunday morning Forum provided the student with a chance to discuss controversial subjects of the time presented by informed leaders.

President Nancy Fitzgerald discusses with her officers, Kim Betts, Nelda Pollard, Pat Manlove, and Joanne Pournaras, plans for the next Wesley Fellowship meeting.

Sunday morning Forum stimulated intellectual conversation.

Students Explore The Fields Of Language

To broaden interest in foreign languages, there are on campus French and German Clubs. Varied activities such as singing, picnics, and films add to the understanding of the cultures in countries where these languages are spoken. Students who have lived in France and Germany share the experiences they had while living abroad to club members. Richard Thrift spent a year in France, and living in Germany were Shirley Bowman, Dave Penrod, Beth Davis, Fran Schwaninger, and Bob Leiter.

Debaters Attain Success

The Bridgewater Debate Team has been successfully debating the topic "Resolved: That the United States should substantially reduce its foreign policy commitments." In competition with schools such as Princeton, University of Virginia, American University, and Johns Hopkins, the team won the DSR-TKA tournament held at George Washington University. The affirmative team is comprised of Bill Royster and Dave Penrod, and the negative team is Ernie Deyerle, Eric Rice, and Janet Jamison.

Seated: Ronnie Young, Dave Penrod, Ernie Deyerle, Eric Rice. Standing: Bill DeMange, Glen Bell, Bill Royster, Fred Hollen, Mr. Dan Bly, Ron Wynn.

DSR-TKA: Dean Alaric Bowman, Dr. Frances Silliman, Dave Penrod, Dean Boitnott.

Bill Royster prepares his ammunition for the next debate.

Disc jockeys and technicians Marc Farley, Paul Buxton, Don Houser, Larry Yatchum, Pat Harris, Mo Neufeld, Don Reid, Marion Bowers, and Wayne Rexrode broadcast weekly from the top of Memorial Hall.

WGMB Acts As Campus Voice

Broadcasting from the top of Memorial Hall, WGMB provides the student body with entertainment, news, and interesting insights into college happenings. WGMB begins broadcasting at 6:00 P.M. staying on the air until 12 midnight with music ranging from pop to soul to jazz. WGMB continues to be the most important voice of Bridgewater College.

Station managers Pat Harris, Richard Geib, Bill Royster, and Jay King steep themselves in the middle of new radio equipment.

Many times the Editor's Note reiterates the goals established by the yearbook staff at the beginning of the year and those goals met by the staff by the completion of the book. Our goals were numerous primarily that of publishing a good annual which actually depicted "Our World at Bridgewater." I feel that the individuals on our campus and their cooperation in helping construct this yearbook are of vital importance and should be recognized.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the people who helped make this edition of the RIPPLES possible. First, I must mention the cooperation that I received from the RIPPLES staff members. Many times I am sure they would have preferred taking a nap or socializing in the Eyrle instead of slaving away to meet our next deadline. To Marion Simmers I would like to give special thanks for assuming the duties of Business Manager second semester. In addition, I would like to thank Mr. Russell Dunlap, our advisor, for his helpful suggestions and Mr. Jeff Overby, our Delmar representative, for his worthy assistance.

To Chris Lydle and Richard Geib, I appreciate their many long nights in the darkroom in the basement of Bowman Hall developing pictures for the deadline the following day.

Secondly, I am grateful for the cooperation I received from the administration, faculty, senate and other student organizations.

Lastly, I acknowledge the moral support and continuous encouragement of my roommate. Many people do not realize that there is always one person with whom the editor discusses the problems of the publications, and Connie was that person for me.

I hope you enjoy this 1967 RIPPLES and that in years to come you may recall "Our World at Bridgewater" as being one of fond memories which you will ever hold dear.

Sandra Derr
Editor-in-Chief
